ENC 3212 – Sri Lankan Writing in English

Answer any four questions.

Each question carries equal marks.

Time: 2 Hours

1. Do you think that teaching literary pieces would be useful to promote English Language Teaching? Elaborate your points of view with suitable examples.
2. How do you view a play on stage? Write down the important features of a play that you have watched.
3. Discuss some of the themes introduced by the Sri Lankan poets and how they are depicted with different imageries in the poems written by them (write about at least two poets).
4. "Silindu and his daughters encounter the lives in different ways in the novel The Village in the Jungle by Leonald Woolf." Comment on the above statement.
5. Write about the main character, Arjie, in the novel Funny Boy by Shyam Selvadurai.
6. Describe the plot of the play The Almsgiving by Regi Siriwardena and state how the theme of the play is related to it.
